You may know my work as an award-winning outdoor artist. I'm just as proud of my achievements as a judgment-winning legal graphics designer for Texas' largest and smallest law firms. — Sam Caldwell / Texas State Artist, 2004

TESTIMONY ABOUT LETTER DATED DECEMBER 7, 1982

– I did not know about the letter in advance – I did not know about 24 hours notice in advance...(p. 11)

– In November, [Name] called – said he was going to give notice – I don't remember how much notice...(pp. 31-36) (p. 30)

– [Name] drafted the letter and Dexed it to my secretary...(pp. 56, 57-58) gave legal advice and agreed with me about 24 hours notice...(pp. 57-58) or my secretary read it to me by phone...(pp. 50-51) (p. 52)

– The letter came after I had left on a 3-week vacation... I gave no legal advice with respect to the matter of notice to [Name] when it would be given, how long it would be given, or anything like that...(pp. 28-31)

– I got it by Dex from our [Name] or our [Name]...(p. 6)

I signed it as instructed and I sent it as instructed...(pp. 8, 12-13)
